

Library- Institute of Legal Studies has well equipped library with number of textbooks, reference books, journals (AIR, SCC, Indian Bar Review etc), and many books covering the various aspects of the law along with the books of humanities. The library also has a collection of different magazines, social sciences books, current affairs and competitions books. English and Hindi newspapers are also available in the library.

E-resource Centre- Library also has e-resource centre with a subscription of various academic and research web portals like JSTOR, Open Journal Access System (OJAS), Directory of Open Access Journal (DOAJ), UGC - Infonet Digital Library consortium.

Moot Court – Institute has a moot court hall with all the advance technology. Regular moot court activities are organised by the Institute for the practical training of students.

Smart Classroom- For attaining the aim of contemporary teaching pedagogy all the modern facilities are available in the department.

IT Infrastructure- Institute have a computer lab with high speed internet connectivity including LAN, Wi Fi. Institute has fully Wi Fi enabled campus.

CCTV Surveillance - Institute is being fully surveillanced by CCTV.

Career Counselling Sessions- Institute is providing regular career counselling to all the students with the help of experts.

Legal Service Centre- Legal Service Centre of Institute of legal studies is recognised by Uttar Pradesh State Legal Service Authority, Lucknow. Legal Service Centre provides free assistance to people, who are unable to access the court system and afford legal representation. Many legal aid programmes, awareness programs and outreach activities, Lokadalat visits, jail visits are organised by the Legal Service Centre.

Separate Common Room for Girls and Boys

Faculty Rooms

Separate Hostel for Girls and Boys

State of the Art Conference Room