

Program Specific Outcomes

PSO1: This course build up the professional and ethical responsibilities among the law students. After completing B.A.LL.B. course students can inherit the standard code of conduct involved in practice of law at courts and demonstrate the values of legal profession.

PSO2: This course will also develop the interpersonal skills which include the skill of drafting the different legal documents, skills of alternate dispute mechanism and other tools to ensure justice to the society.

PSO3: This integrated program provides the students with the exposure to a wide range of different subjects having a combination of law, technology, management, which enhance their employability in present day scenario.