In fact, the 1857 in 1857 Original Mutiny Narratives is a project to explore the history of the Indian people who took arms against the Colonial British Imperialism during the Great Struggle of 1857. The work was highly appreciated by Late Prof Satish Chandra Mittal, one of the eminent historians of Modern Indian History. The Project is to be completed in about 12 volumes. Telling about the importance of 1857 in 1857, in the 'Foreward' of its vol. I, even the Leftist Historian Prof. Irfan Habib was compelled to write:

".....This volume is now rare. No selection from the documents is to be found in the official series of six volumes (5 volumes of documents plus one of index) on the 1857 Revolt in U.P., Freedom Struggle in Uttar Pradesh, ed. S.A.A. Rizvi and M.L. Bhargawa, Lucknow, 1957-60, now reprinted by the New Delhi, 2011.....

It is therefore, greatly to be welcomed that Dr. Vighnesh Kumar has very punctiliously reprinted these documents.....

There is ample reason, for all of us to be grateful to Dr Kumar for having retrived these records and brought out this fresh edition.
