After winning the Miss Best Hair title in a national level beauty pageant, Chandigarh girl Aparajita Sharma is now all set to follow her Bollywood dreams. But she has also kept her doors open for primetime television slots. Aparajita, who was in Meerut for a promotional photo shoot at a fashion designing institute, here spells out her priorities in a chat with HT City. "Karan Johar is my favorite filmmaker and undoubtedly Ekta Kapoor is my darling soap opera maker," unfolds the girl. Ideally, she would love to work with both these dynamic producers and directors, she adds. But hold on, there's more. She would consider herself really blessed if cast opposite SRK, reveals the ambitious girl.

Looking fabulous in various outfits that she flaunted during the photo shoot, she also points out that currently she is working with some of the top fashion designers in India. "I'm doing shows for Satya Paul, JJ Valaya and few other big designers", she reveals. Aparajita finds Meerut and its people happening and vibrant. "Oh, it's really fabulous to be in Meerut. It is a thriving city and people are so good here, especially the youngsters are quite talented", she says. She found the outfits designed by city based JD institute of Fashion Designing really amazing. Her message for the Meerut youth? "Don't get swayed by the showbiz. It's a cutthroat industry, where you have to be always ready to accept new challenges everyday. If you are looking forward to make a career in the fashion industry then you must be well equipped".
